

Board Charter

ZHENG HE GLOBAL CAPITAL LIMITED

ACN 128 246 042

(Company)

Adopted by the Board on 16 June 2010

Board Charter

1. Introduction

- 1.1 Zheng He Global Capital Limited (Company) is seeking listing as a public company.
- 1.2 The Company's Board of Directors is responsible for the corporate governance of the Company and its controlled entities (Group).
- 1.3 The purpose of this charter is to:
 - (a) promote high standards of corporate governance;
 - (b) clarify the role and responsibilities of the Board; and
 - (c) enable the Board to provide strategic guidance for the Group and effective management oversight.
- 1.4 This charter is supported by the code of conduct for directors, senior executives and all other employees, the charters for the Nomination & Remuneration Committee and Audit Committee, Share Trading Policy and the Market Disclosure Protocol.
- 1.5 For the purpose of this charter, senior executives include all officers and employees who have the opportunity to materially influence the integrity, strategy and operation of the Company and its financial performance.

2. Board size, composition and independence

- 2.1 There must be a minimum of 3 directors and may only be a maximum of 10 directors.
- 2.2 The Board should ideally comprise:
 - (a) a majority of independent non-executive directors;
 - (b) directors with an appropriate range of skills, experience and expertise;
 - (c) directors who can understand and competently deal with current and emerging business issues; and
 - (d) directors who can effectively review and challenge the performance of management and exercise independent judgment.
- 2.3 An independent non-executive director is one who:
 - (a) is independent of management;
 - (b) free of any business or other relationship that could materially interfere with, or could reasonably be perceived to materially interfere with, the independent exercise of their unfettered and independent judgment; and
 - (c) otherwise meets the criteria for independence set out in the Principles of Good Corporate Governance and Best Practice Recommendations published by the ASX Corporate Governance Council.
- 2.4 The Board should regularly assess whether each non-executive Director is independent and each non-executive Director should provide to the Board all information relevant to his or her assessment.

- 2.5 If a director's independent status changes, this should be immediately disclosed and explained to the market.
- 2.6 While the Company will aim to have a majority of independent non-executive directors, this may not always be practicable given the size of the Board and the circumstances of the Group, including the nature of the Group's business. Accordingly, the Directors have absolute discretion to determine the appropriate composition of the Board from time to time.
- 2.7 Initially the Board will comprise 3 non-executive directors (2 of whom can be characterised as independent for the purposes of the definition of the ASX guidelines) and 2 executive directors. Consequently, ASX Best Practice Recommendation 2.1 which recommends that a majority of the Board should be independent has not been complied with.
- 2.8 The Board has considered recommendation 2.1 and recognises the importance of having a majority of independent directors on the Board, however, the Board also seeks to have the best possible balance of skills and experience for the Company's activities and so has decided that presently majority independence is not of primary importance. The Board is of the view that, as currently composed, it has the required size, commitment, skills, independence of thought and judgement to adequately discharge its duties and responsibilities and to ensure decisions by the Board are in the best interests of the Company and its shareholders.
- 2.9 The Nomination and Remuneration Committee is responsible for recommending candidates for appointment to the Board.
- 2.10 Each Director is appointed by a formal letter of appointment setting out the key terms and conditions of their appointment to ensure that each Director clearly understands the Company's expectations of him or her.
